Engineers for a changing world

We're all touched daily by the talent and inspiration of engineers.

Engineering powers, sustains and connects us. It's the solution to new and ongoing challenges: from sustainable development, to individual security, to worldwide pandemics which turn the world upside-down.

But right now our engineers lack the resources, diversity and skills to address the needs of our rapidly changing world. If we want to build a better future, we need to nurture a generation of problem-solvers who are ready to tackle these challenges head-on.

The NMITE Difference

NMITE is Hereford's game-changing Higher Education Institution. With our accelerated Master's Degree in Integrated Engineering and a suite of lifelong learning programmes, we're educating engineers in a way no one has done before.

We look beyond what's on paper. We don't assess by grades and qualifications alone. We look for people with the passion, curiosity, courage and grit they need to get the most from their NMITE experience.

We embrace and encourage diversity. We'll open up opportunities to people from all walks of life, bringing fresh talent to the sector. By developing more engineers who think differently, we'll help find better answers.

We champion challenge-based learning. Our learners will work in purpose-built engineering studios which reflect their future work environment. They'll learn from, and work alongside, real businesses with real problems.

We bring real value to our community. We're proud of our roots and we're deeply connected to our community. Our presence in Hereford will bring economic, cultural and social benefits for everyone.

We're on a mission to ignite a new era in engineering education – and we need you to join us.

Be the Ignition

As a pioneering Higher Education Institution we rely on charitable gifts to make a truly transformational impact. You can play an important part in our mission by signing up to our regular giving programme, Ignition.

Your generous gifts will help aspiring engineers get the education they need to tackle the world's challenges head on.

£50 a month could buy materials for a 3D printer so learners can print prototypes to test their ideas.

£150 a month could help deliver professional skills workshops equipping learners with the skills they need to make a real difference in their chosen careers.

£300 a month could give learners access to specialised reading materials to support their studies and expand their knowledge of the world around them.

£750 a month could buy a year's worth of project materials and resources for one learner.

Sign up to Ignition today. Simply complete and return the attached gift form, or donate online at www.nmite.ac.uk/give

Donate through your salary

You can sign up to Ignition by making your regular gift through Payroll Giving. Donations made through Payroll Giving cost you at least 20% less as they're taken from your pre-tax pay – meaning a £1 donation can cost you just 80p.

In order to make donations from your pay, your employer will need to have a Payroll Giving scheme in place. Please contact the NMITE team for more information.
